HENRY J. MAIBEN HOME.

He Perpetrates a Joyous Surprise on His Family and Friends in Provo Today.

If ever there was a happy family in Provo, that family is Henry J. Maiben's today. A few days over a year ago Mr. Maiben left Provo for a mission in the southern states. He and all his friends thought that he would spend at least two years in his work before being released. Friends of his in Salt Lake, however, realizing that during these depressed times his business and private affairs needed his personal attention, interfered with the authorities in his behalf and the president of the southern mission was instructed that if Mr. Maiben desired to return to his home he might be honorably released from further missionary service. Although Henry was enjoying his labors and contented to work on, the sudden prospect of soon joining his family and dear ones at home was a temptation that he could not resist and he no longer thought than he acted, and as soon as possible after receipt of the information was rolling westward as fast as locomotive could take him. He left Birmingham, Alabama, on Monday evening last. He did not write the news of his coming home, realizing that he would get here himself as soon as a letter, and he concluded that the shock to his wife on receipt of a telegram, especially before opening it, would not be pleasant, so he determined to precipitate a little surprise on his family. And he did. He walked in upon them this morning unannounced, looking hale and hearty, his countenance lit up with a joyous smile, in fact a hearty laugh. His wife had the house "all upside down," she was in the midst of house cleaning. A description of the meeting of the loving husband and wife is not attempted here—it cannot be described in type. And what a joyous scampering of devoted children to hug and kiss papa, and then to run over to tell grandma, and she, dear old soul, leaving her work and running as she was with all the life and speed of youth to fall in her son's arms, all went to make up an experience of pleasure and happiness such as few mortals ever realize.

Henry is shaking the hands of his friends right heartily this afternoon, his arm must ache.

The Dispatch shakes, too, and bids him a hearty welcome.

Powerful and large as are the great of modern United States warships, they are all of low stature compared with the towering structures of 60 or 70 years ago. The United States steamship Pennsylvania, built about 1828 and supposed at the time to be one of the largest warships ever launched, was 220 feet long and 58 broad. She carried 220 guns and towered aloft with five decks. Her complement of men was 1,400.—Detroit Free Press.

Couldn't See the Point. "I can't see no fun in these newspaper jokes about plumbers' bills," said a wealthy plumber to a friend at the club.

The Evolution of medical agents is gradually relegating the old-time herbs, pills, draughts and vegetable extracts to the rear and bringing into general use the pleasant and effective liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs. To get the true remedy see that it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only. For sale by all leading druggists.

The Guillotine. The striking thing about the execution was the appalling quickness of it all. Action was so rapid from the instant the condemned appeared in the doorway of the prison to the moment the knife fell that it was almost impossible to distinguish the slight chain of incidents. He flung himself eagerly against the plank, was strapped to it, and in the flash of a glance the plank was pushed forward on the platform of the guillotine. An instant's vision of a recumbent figure, face downward. In the same moment a head, with two staring, wide open eyes, whirled almost defiantly, as it seemed, and with a slight zigzag movement to the rightward, while simultaneously the pincioned body rolled inert, convulsive, into the capacious basket, also at the right hand side of the guillotine. The swiftness, the mechanical promptness of the business, fairly stupefied the spectator. It was impossible to realize that a human life had ended in less time than it would take to draw a full breath. The guillotine had done its work well. There was scarcely a sense of horror in the sight. —New York World.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup. We guarantee this to be the best cough syrup manufactured in the whole world. This saying a great deal, but it is true. For Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Sore Chest, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, and all other diseases of the Throat and Lungs, we positively guarantee Ballard's Horehound Syrup to be without an equal on the whole face of the globe. In support of this statement we refer to every individual who has ever used it; and to every druggist who has ever sold it. Such evidence is indisputable. Sold by Smoot Drug Co.

Saved Her Life

Surgical Operations and Best Medical Treatment Failed

An Almost Miraculous Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. Mollie Wendt, Chicago, Illinois.

"O. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."

"Beginning in February, '92, I was very sick for two months. Slowly I got better but was confined to my bed. A physician said I had a Pelvic Abscess in My Side."

After an operation I did not improve, the abscess continuing to discharge even more freely than before. In two months time three operations were performed and tubes inserted to carry off the impurities, but all in vain. Finally it was decided that my life depended upon another operation and that I must be removed to the hospital. About three weeks previous to this I had noticed an advertisement in the Daily News of a case where Hood's Sarsaparilla had cured a boy somewhat similarly afflicted in Truett, N. J., and I decided to give it a trial. When the time decided upon for me to go to the hospital arrived I had been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla about two weeks.

I Was Getting Better and the abscess had already begun to discharge freely. I felt stronger and had a terrible appetite. Previous to this I had given up to die. When I had taken the second bottle I was able to sit up and accordingly I was not taken to the hospital and the final operation was deferred. Now I have taken six bottles and the abscess has entirely healed. I am well and go every where. My friends think it is a miracle to have me restored to them again so healthy and even younger in looks than before my sickness.

I Feel Better Than Ever

I did in my life and weigh over 120 pounds, the heaviest in my life. I do a big day's work and am gaining in strength every day. My mother worried and worked herself almost sick in caring for me. She has since taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and it has done her much good. We praise Hood's Sarsaparilla to everybody, for

I Know It Saved My Life.

I am 27 years old, and a stranger to look at me now would not think I ever had a day's sickness. Even though I was cured by the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla in my case. Mother and myself continue to take the medicine.
